

6516207338.txt

XM Radio is a pay service. I can't understand why the National Association of Broadcasters can try to push this bill through. They provide a free service using easily accessible AM/FM radios that are far more common than satellite radio. Passing a bill like this is like saying HBO, Showtime, and other cable movie channels can't broadcast R-rated movies.